NOBLE C. HOOD
Clerk, U.S. District Court

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER MODIFYING SENTENCE

This matter coming on for hearing this 27th day of January, 1955 and the court being fully advised in the premises finds that on the 21st day of April, 1953, the defendant, Meredith Leroy Cox, was sentenced on Count 1 to the custody of the Attorney General of the United States for a period of five (5) years and on Count 2 to the custody of the Attorney General of the United States for a period of Five (5) years, such sentence on Count 2 to begin at the expiration of and to run consecutively to the sentence imposed on Count 1 and that on the 4th day of May, 1953 the court ordered such sentence modified in that the sentence of confinement on Counts 1 and 2 were ordered to run concurrently with the time remaining unserved on a sentence heretofore imposed on the 15th day of January, 1948 in the United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri. Thereafter, on the 17th day of June, 1953, this court set aside and held for nought the sentence entered on the 4th day of May, 1953 and modified the sentence entered on April 21, 1953 on Count 2 to the extent that the defendant be confined to the custody of the Attorney General of the United States for a period of Two (2) years, five (5) months and three (3) days on count 2, such sentence to begin at the expiration of and to run consecutively with the sentence imposed on Count 1.

After further consideration and a full review of the facts the court finds that in the interests of justice the sentence imposed on Count 2 should be further modified by suspending the sentence imposed June 17, 1953 on Count 2 and placing the defendant on probation with the period of probation to begin immediately upon his release from the custody of the Attorney General of the United States or from any other correctional authority.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the order modifying sentence entered on the 17th day of June, 1953 on Count 2 be further modified and that the sentence on Count 2 be suspended and that the defendant be placed on probation, such probationary period to commence immediately upon the release of the defendant from the custody of the Attorney General of the United States or from any other correctional authority, whichever is later.
